Much praise was bestowed last evening upon the production of "The Black Sheep" seen at the Theatre. Many people remarked that it was one of the most enjoyable pictures they had seen. The story is told so plainly and the acting is so real that the audience can thoroughly understand the story. It has been declared a decided success wherever shown.

The program at the Comique to-day is first class, the feature picture, "Won in the Desert," is uncommonly interesting; during the picture we see an excellent display of camels, horses and lions. The acting and scenic effect are superior to anything in the moving picture sphere we have seen for some time. "Missionary and the Maid" is certainly funny. It is one of the best comedies shown at the Comique this season.

A new bridge is to be built on the Williamstown road, near the Lester Gale place, and it is probable that the road will have to be closed the greater part of the day next Monday, so that automobilists and other users of the road need to govern themselves accordingly. The old bridge is to be swung up the street temporarily and until it can be placed there will be no means of passage. The new bridge will be of iron, with stone abutments. The bridge will have eighteen feet clear and will improve the travelling in that direction very much, since the old bridge had settled considerably.

SUTTON COURT UPHOLD.

Action in Changing Hearing to Prosecution Sustained by Navy Department.

Washington, July 31.—Beckman Winthrop, assistant secretary of the navy, held that the court of inquiry investigating the death of Lieutenant James Sutton did not overstep its authority when it changed the alignment of witnesses at Annapolis on Tuesday. Accordingly he dictated a letter late yesterday afternoon to Henry E. Davis, Mrs. Sutton's attorney, who formally protested against the court's action, informing him that the department would not interfere with the case, and that the judge advocate general, Captain Campbell, ruled against the contention of Mrs. Sutton's attorneys.

When the court reconvenes, therefore, the investigation of the death of Lieutenant Sutton, who died after a fist fight with his brother officers, at the Annapolis Marine Barracks in October, 1907, will proceed, with Mrs. Sutton as accuser and Lieutenants Adams, Osterman, Wiley, Wilkins, Brown, and Sergeant De Hart accused of being responsible for Lieutenant Sutton's death.

The date of the next meeting of the court is not yet decided, as Lieutenants Utley and Surgeon Cook, two important witnesses, are on the cruiser North Carolina, which vessel is expected at Provincetown on Aug. 1.

There is much speculation here as to what the action of Mrs. Sutton's attorneys will be in fact of the adverse decision of the navy department. There is talk of taking the case to the civil courts.

The sole business of the court of inquiry, it is declared, is to ascertain the facts. Even if Mrs. Sutton and her attorneys should be so dissatisfied as to wish to sever all connection with the investigation, the work of the court would progress in accordance with its precept.

ADDISON COUNTY FAIR.

Plans For Notable Exhibition at Middlebury August 24-27.

Middlebury, July 31.—Addison County Fair will be held at Middlebury August 24-27. The attractions for this great exhibition are even more numerous than usual and everything is being done by the management to make the fair a success. Additional premiums and new classes are scheduled. A feature will be 1,700 beautiful premium ribbons that will be distributed to successful exhibitors.

The Rutland railroad has made the low offer of fare one way for both passengers and exhibits and will announce a special train service. Exhibits will be returned free by the railroad during the first five days.

Free performances every afternoon will be given on the stage opposite the grand stand by vaudeville stars.

This fair is famous for its good racing. It will be better this year if the management can make it so. The starting judge will be F. A. Upton of Rochester, N. Y., one of the best in the country. Mr. Upton has officiated at the New York state fair.

Governor Prentiss and his staff have accepted an invitation to be the guests of the fair on Friday, August 27, which will be Governor's Day. On this day will occur the great $1,000 free-for-all.

Until this season the park consisted of about 22 acres, but the society has just purchased 13 additional acres and immediately in the rear of the Addison
